

please vote no to expand the ownership rights of the media conglomerate, ...if the vote is yes then I guess the american public can see for itself that emails and such to you people mean that we do not have any representation in this matter, do we, we are just lackies of you who take big campaign money and lawyer money from the big media giants who you will represent in lawsuits. does it make your daddy proud!